

You're Invited to Play Flock A Friend

This is a playful fundraiser designed to assist the work of The Willow Tree Inc., a non-profit counseling & education agency dedicated to preventing alcohol, tobacco, drug use & bullying by youth as well as helping those adults & youth with aggression, drinking &/or drugging problems to recover.

When you "flock a friend" — Willow Tree volunteers will plant a number of plastic pink flamingos in your person's yard, leaving a letter explaining our fundraiser & encouraging him/her to play.

Caution: When choosing someone to flock with flamingos, please make sure this person (1) has a sense of humor, (2) will not be insulted or upset by this, & (3) is likely to support the "You've just been flocked" FUNDRAISER. But don't worry, should your friend not wish to play, s/he will be asked to do nothing and within 48 hours, the dreaded pink ones will simply disappear as mysteriously as they arrived.
